DESCRIPTION

We're looking for a candidate to this position in an exciting company. Work with the producer and core creative team to define the vision of the game. Provide leadership and constructive feedback to achieve the highest quality from all team members. Co-ordinate and oversee the art team throughout the development process. Create visual style guides, mood boards and relevant reference material. Prior professional experience in the game industry as an Art Director. A strong portfolio containing examples of commercial work. Understanding of art fundamentals and artistic culture. Creativity and resourcefulness. A proven record of directing high quality game art and animations, including gameplay assets, characters and environments from concept to final in-game assets. A passion for mobile games. Excellent communication skills and the ability to quickly create concepts and/or mockups to communicate complex ideas. An interest in player behaviour and player experience and an understanding of how visual decisions can affect both. Effective time management, problem solving and organisational skills. Ability to accept feedback and adapt positively.
