Job Category: Education Job Location: London, Greater London, United Kingdom Instead of face-to-face meetings, all interviews will be via phone and we can guide you through submitting your documents online. Teacher of Engineering Grade: UQ/NQT/MPS/UPS Full-time, 1-year contract January 2021 Tradewind have an exciting opportunity for an exceptional Engineering Teacher to join a fantastic department at an 11-18 academy based in Greenwich. This is a one-year contract, beginning in January 2021. There are outstanding facilities on offer, ensuring that a wide range of subjects and experiences are available to students. The school is an expanding 11-18 school in the heart of Greenwich. In 2017, the school was established with an initial cohort of year 7 students and a sixth form provision and they continue to go from strength to strength. September 2020 marks the next phase of the school's growth as their inaugural cohort begin their journey into Year 10 and they unveil their brand new £14 million building. If you are an experienced Engineering Teacher, with a passion for passing on your industry knowledge onto the next generation of engineers then we want to hear from you! The school's expansion affords them the opportunity to increase their staff team encompassing key leadership and teaching posts across a range of curriculum areas
